

GDPR Policy - UNITED JUDO (BEXLEYHEATH/DARTFORD)

In line with the new Data Protection recommendations that have now come into force as of May 2018 Regarding the handling of all personal data held by Clubs thus strengthening and unifying data Protection for all individuals.

What information we collect

United Judo asks individuals/parents to complete a Contact Sheet, attached, when joining our Club which Includes:

- Personal information (such as name, address, telephone numbers, email address);
- Special categories of data including age, gender ethnic group and disabilities;
- Membership contract information (such as BJA membership details);
- Competition data (this is collected and shared with the BJA (British Judo Association) to advise and guide members on the next steps in qualification or grading, and also shared with other clubs if we are putting in a club entry to a competition);
- Medical information (this is collected in case of emergency whilst at Club/competitions)

Why we collect and use this information

We use member information data to:

- Enable the development of a comprehensive picture of the member to assist with progression in the sport;
- Inform members about development of the Sport, Club;
- Enable members to progress onto higher level competitions;
- Enable the British Judo Association to trace and improve judo for its members; and
- Enable us as a Club to use relevant information in case of an emergency with the emergency services

The lawful basis on which we process this information

We process this information under the membership contract you have entered into with United Judo or in relation to the steps taken to enter into that contract.

Where information of a non-sensitive nature is processed and is therefore in the Club's legitimate interests i.e. membership of the Club. Where sensitive data is processed by means of consent, with appropriate safeguards and is in the legitimate interests of the Club. Or is in your vital interests.

Collecting this information

Whilst the majority of information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the data protection legislation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain membership information to us or if you have a choice in this.

Storing this information
